

I do not want any telemarketer calling me any time. Do not let the banking industry over turn this law of privacy. I have been interrupted from sleep, from family meals etc...I do not like this and neither do the people that are pushing to get this changed.